STRANGE BUT TRUE... MAYBE JUST STRANGE

Over the years a number of laws have been put into effect for one archaic reason or another. Hopefully most have been repealed, but some have not.

An odd Kansas law (also attributed to Texas) "When two trains approach each other at a crossing, they both shall come to a full stop and neither shall start up until the other has gone."

In West Virginia "It is against the law to sneeze on a train." Also in West Virginia "When a railroad passes within 1 mile of a community of 100 or more people in it, they must build a station and stop there regularly to pick up and drop off passengers."

In Alabama "Putting salt on a railroad track can be punishable by death."

In South Carolina "Railroads may be liable for scaring a horse."

In North Carolina "It is against the law to drink milk on a train."

In Wisconsin "It is illegal to kiss on a train."

In Virginia "A train traveling after dark must be proceeded by a man on a horse carrying a red lantern."
