OCTOBER RAILROADS

While deciding on a topic for this month's Back Page we ran across a couple of interesting sites that caught our interest. One of them may be found at www.railroadphotoessays.com. In the photo essays forum Diverging Routes you will find a thread entitled October in the Railroad Earth. Photographer Jeffrey Bass has created a wonderful photo essay of various railroad "signatures".

The title gives a fitting nod to author and poet Jack Kerouac, who spent much of his young adult life in the 1940s traveling the United States and Mexico. It is likely the classic 1960s tv show Route 66 was based on Kerouac's semi autobiographical novel On the Road. Though it would seem that Jack would disagree, he is often thought of as the father of the Beatnik culture. He has said "I'm not a beatnik, I'm a Catholic".

We, like the author of this particular thread make no judgment on whether or not the the Box Car Art or BCA as Mr. Bass calls it should exist, but would rather sit back and enjoy the ride.

IMPORTANT NOTE

Starting January 1, 2012 the CSXT will be implementing a very sizable increase in private car demurrage and switching fees for anyone shipping hazardous materials on the CSXT. Demurrage credits will be reduced to only one day and the daily charge will increase to $150.00 for hazardous and $1,200.00 for inhalation hazardous materials. There will now be a charge for intra-plant switching for all hazardous materials at $175.00 and an increase to $500 for inhalation hazards. Intra-terminal switching increases to $500.00 and $1,000.00. Contact CSXT at www.ShipCSX.com, e-mail at Rail_Logistic_Svcs@csx.com or contact your Account Manager.
